

Pat Egan

You never know where my songs may go or what they will be about , Groundhogs to Zebras , Shakespeare to Dr. Seuss , Anchor and wings, looking for Peace of Mind or Zombie's wanting the same .

About

I was Born and raised in Springfield, MI, in a house full of music. My Father was a ragtime piano player and three of my siblings played piano, guitar and ended up writing music. I learned to play by ear like the old Man and somewhere in my Teens I started to write songs. Moved to Rochester Mn after College and have lived here ever since .

My music covers a wide range of styles from Folk, pop, and blues, and topics of the lyrics range from silly, sweet to sad .

Songwriting was always a part of my life through all the changes, but it was mainly something I did for myself. In about 2008, I started to play out at some open mics in town and play my own songs in public.

This led me into some wonderful songwriting groups, like the Singer songwriters challenge out of the twin cities, where we have one week to post a song on a prompt. I also gained the confidence to record my first CD in 2016, The Bells of St. Mary's, and to begin to play out on my own. A Second CD Milwaukee Road to be released in the spring of 2021 and hope to release a Kid's CD sometime in 2023.

Musical notes

Who are you musical influences – real long list -Neil Young, Paul Simon, Joni Mitchell, Randy Newman, Shawn Colvin , America, Aimee Mann, the Band , Jim Croce, James Taylor ... all the way up to current bands like The Avett Brother, Mumford and Sons and Trampled by Turtles

Who do you sound like – This has always been a hard one for me to answer, and will tell you I get so many different answers to this from people ... Think this is due to the fact that I tend to write in many different styles so it's very hard to pin down.
